COUNTY MAN IS FOUND DEAD OF SHOTGUN WOUND

George H. Clapsaddle, 55, Orrtanna R. 1, was found dead Saturday morning about 11 o'clock in an orchard near his home. A shotgun wound in the head, which caused the death, was self-inflicted, Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County Coroner, said. Dr. Crist added that Mr. Clapsaddle had been in ill health for several years and had become despondent over his condition.

A native of Franklin Twp., the deceased was a son of the late John William and Anna (Irvin) Clapsaddle, and was a farmer and fruit grower. He was a member of St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church, the Holy Name Society of that church and of the Eagles lodge of Gettysburg.

Funeral Wednesday
Survivors include these brothers and sisters: Miss Rose Clapsaddle, Carlisle; Albert Clapsaddle, Orrtanna R. 1; Mrs. Virginia Anderson and Mrs. George Blawie, Detroit; John Anderson, at home, and Mrs. Lewis Blevins, York.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning meeting at the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., at 8:45 o'clock followed by services at St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. Louis Yeager officiating.

Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home. The Rosary will be recited there at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

MRS. R. SITLER'S RITES WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Funeral services for Mrs. Ralph Sitler Sr., the former Miss Kathryn Sheads, of Gettysburg, who died Friday at Manila, P. I., will not be held until some time next week according to word received today by the Bender Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete at this time.

Mrs. Sitler died suddenly on Friday while eating dinner. She had been suffering from a heart ailment and had been a patient at the Clark Field AFB Hospital for about six weeks but had been discharged and was at home when she was stricken.

Mr. Sitler is a U. S. government employee serving as an engineer with the Bureau of Public Roads and had gone to the Philippines on a two-year service tour. The couple had been married 28 years.

Survivors Listed
Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Ralph W. Sitler Jr., Dillsburg R. 2, four grandsons, and two brothers, LeRoy Sheads, Fairfield, and Sgt. Harold C. Sheads, Pennsylvania State Police, in charge of the York station but living in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Sitler was a member of the St. James Lutheran Church in Gettysburg, the Women of the Moose, the Symia White Shrine. She was a 1927 graduate of Gettysburg High School and had worked for the Murphy Co. and for the Cut-Rate Drugs as a manager for a number of years.

GROUP VISITS CAMP FOR BLIND

Five members of the Lions Club and three wives Sunday afternoon visited Beacon Lodge, a summer camp for the blind near Mt. Union, the only one of its kind in the state. The local club helps to support the camp financially.

The local group was welcomed at the lodge and then taken on a tour of the camp after which Carl Shoenmaker, administrator since the inception of the camp, and blind since birth, told the local group how the camp was founded and how it has grown through the years.

After eating a picnic lunch with the campers the local visitors were entertained by three blind campers and two guests who comprised a string band to present a concert. A blind girl who has completed her sophomore year at Beaver College, played piano solos and sang several selections.

Those visiting the camp were: Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Musselman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stahle, Kenneth Thomas and David C. Blosser III.

The local club held its annual family picnic at the Gettysburg Country Club this afternoon.

On August 25 the club will conduct its annual broom sale.

Entertains Children And Grandchildren Here

JOHN SCHROYER HOSTS FAMILY IN GETTYSBURG

The family of former state Secretary of Highways John U. Schroyer, Shamokin, visited the Gettysburg Battlefield Saturday.

The trip was slightly different from most family parties. There were 41 in the group and they traveled by bus.

Mr. Schroyer, well known in Gettysburg from frequent visits here, and prominent in United Spanish War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars affairs, had decided that his grandchildren should see the Gettysburg Battlefield and hear the story of the struggle here, "to help them gain a more patriotic insight into America."

His decision led to the trip by the 41 members of the family headed by Mr. and Mrs. Schroyer.

21 Grandchildren
Others in the group included 21 grandchildren, four sons and their wives, three daughters and their husbands and a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, and their two children.

The group left Shamokin at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, lunched at the Hotel Gettysburg, toured the field under the direction of Guide Robert Fidler, had supper at the Dutch Cupboard and then returned home.

Former Highways Secretary Schroyer served as Commander of the Pennsylvania Department of the United Spanish War Veterans and also as national commander of that organization. He also served as state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A veteran of the Spanish War, he was married and the father of six children in 1914, when, as a postal clerk he was earning $90 a month and learned that it was difficult to stretch the $90 to cover the needs of his family. Knowing the need of postal clerks for a heavy apron to protect their clothing, and their inability to obtain them, he decided to make aprons for postal workers.

Now Employs 700
Mrs. Schroyer gave her consent only if he made women's dresses as well, "so our daughters and I might have something to wear if we can't sell them."

The dresses proved successful and today Schroyer's company, with plants in Shamokin, Selinsgrove and Milton, make more than 1,000,000 dresses a year and employ 700 persons. They are sold all over the U. S. and in Hawaii and the Philippines.

In addition the Schroyer family operates a retail store in Shamokin and publishes a weekly newspaper, "The Shamokin Citizen" with 10,000 circulation. Mr. Schroyer serves as managing editor of the paper, in addition to heading up the dress making business. All of his sons are engaged in business with him.

Above is a photograph of the Schroyer families who were entertained here by Mr. and Mrs. John Schroyer, Shamokin, Saturday. In the group were: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schroyer, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eveland, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rothermel, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Shroyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Lark, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shroyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Shroyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lawton W. Shroyer. All Schroyer children or unmarried children are listed as follows: Christine, Kay, Louise, Kathleen, Joanne, Robert, Nancy, John E. V. Susan, David, Jean, Rothermel children include: Allen, Linda, Ann, Robert, John. Moore children include Thomas and Margaret. Eveland children include Janet, Barry, Jeffery and Sandra. Lark children include Frederick E. and Carol. (Times Photo)

Western Maryland Presents Blue Ridge Summit Station For Library In Community

The rambling gray railroad station in the center of one of the east's most famous summer resorts a half century ago, Blue Ridge Summit, was presented over the weekend to the people of the community by the Western Maryland Railway Company.

The wooden building, with its conical metal-covered tower that has been a landmark there for years, wooden platforms, benches, tiny telegraph room and concourse — occupying in all an acre and a half of land — will be used as a public library.

Presentation of the deed for the property marked a brief Saturday afternoon ceremony. J. B. Ferguson, a member of the board of directors of the Western Maryland; C. R. Zaroff, vice president of traffic for the WM, and a group of town leaders participated.

Mrs. Robert W. Hearne, president of the board of the Blue Ridge Summit Free Library, accepted the deed on behalf of the library and people of the area. She declared:

"The entire community owes a debt of gratitude to the Western Maryland Railway Company for the gift of this station. It is to be a real community center. It is to be preserved, in so far as possible, in its present form. We shall have to change the interior, of course, but we want to retain its outer physical characteristics so that people will always know that it was once a railroad station."

Ferguson paid tribute to Mrs. Hearne and the library board, Harvey Gearhart, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Dailey, secretary; Miss Marea Harris, treasurer; and Earl Bohn, Miss Blanche Eyer, Mrs. James Annis, Mrs. Jack Kramer, Miss Ethel Wedge and Miss Martha Conhor.

Recall Old Days
The gay days of the swift Blue Mountain Express, which carried Baltimore's top society to the 70 miles to the mountain resort at the turn of the century, were recalled nostalgically by those present.

The Western Maryland, which no longer carries passengers in Maryland or Pennsylvania, used to haul as many as 2,000,000 riders a year — most of them between Baltimore and the Pen-Mar area. The automobile, in the '20s, sounded the death knell of the road's thriving passenger trade and signalled the end of the area's rule as a great summer resort.

The deed for the property was signed by W. Arthur Grotz, president of the WM and E. C. Lanahan, secretary. Zaroff declared:

HOUSE TRAILER DAMAGES TAXI

Damage amounted to $95 in an accident Saturday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the intersection of Baltimore and W. Middle Sts., according to borough police reports.

Harry G. Reed, 33, Halifax R. 2, was driving a 1953 Ford truck with a house trailer attached, south on Baltimore St., and attempted a right turn into W. Middle St. In doing so, police said, the rear of the trailer scraped the left side of a car halted in a line of traffic heading north on Baltimore St. Edgar Bollinger, 62, Gettysburg R. 1, driver of the automobile, a taxi owned by Rufus Reaver, W. High St., told police he saw what was happening, sounded the horn as a warning, but Reed continued on.

Reed was apprehended about two miles west of Gettysburg on the Fairfield Rd. and told of the mishap. He told police he realized something was wrong with the rear end of the trailer and stopped but did not talk with anyone involved in the accident.

Police estimated $75 damage to the taxi and $20 to the trailer.

May Send Hammarskjold On Mid-East Peace Mission

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A Western-supported resolution was laid before the U.N. General Assembly emergency meeting today proposing that Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold be given a new Middle East peace mission.

The new plan was whipped into final form in a busy weekend of conferences between the chief sponsor, Dept. Foreign Minister Hans Engen of Norway, and other key delegates.

The United States was not a sponsor, but informed quarters said the United States would give the proposal full support.

The text was understood to give Hammarskjold the job of working out security arrangements in Lebanon and Jordan to make possible withdrawal of U.S. and British forces.

It also was reported to call on the secretary general to make studies on two of President Eisenhower's Middle East peace proposals — creation of a stand-by peace force and establishment of a regional economic foundation.

The resolution reportedly failed Sunday night to win Arab-Asian support.

A diplomat said some Arab and Asian countries had objected that it did not say specifically that the United States and Britain should withdraw their troops.

Engen has said, however, that he would have a "nice group" of cosponsors in the 81-nation Assembly.

The Salome M. Stewart Tent will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the GAR post room, E. Middle St.

FORMER MOUNT MUSIC TEACHER DIES SATURDAY

William Stephen Sterbinsky, 66, Emmitsburg, a former professor of music at Mt. St. Mary's and St. Joseph Colleges, Emmitsburg, for 19 years, died suddenly late Saturday morning while driving along the Emmitsburg Rd., near the Battlefield Motel, two miles south of here.

Mr. Sterbinsky, who had been suffering from a heart ailment for several years, had appeared to be in normal health as he and his wife were driving toward Gettysburg to go shopping. He suddenly slumped against the wheel. Mrs. Sterbinsky was able to gain control of the car and bring it to a halt.

Dr. Roy W. Gifford, deputy coroner of Adams County was called because Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, was at the time in Franklin Twp. investigating a gun shot death there. Dr. Gifford said Mr. Sterbinsky's death was caused by a heart attack.

Native of Bridgeport
A native of Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. Sterbinsky was a son of the late William S. and Anna (Vakal) Sterbinsky. He had resided in Emmitsburg for many years.

A member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, he was a member of the Holy Name Society of that church. He had been a charter member of the Emmitsburg Lions Club and at one time played the piano at meetings of both the Emmitsburg and Fairfield Lions Clubs.

He had resigned from the Lions, however, when he became ill several years ago and had also ended his services as professor of music. He had been employed in recent years at Fort Detrick, Frederick.

Survivors Listed
Surviving are his wife, the former Alice G. Dukehart; a daughter, Mrs. Lester Boyer, Frederick; a son, William Francis Sterbinsky, Baltimore; a sister, Mrs. Katherine Hjort, New York, and two step-sisters, Mrs. Helen Breen and Mrs. Gazzella Barrow, both of Connecticut.

Funeral services Tuesday morning with meeting at the Allison Funeral Home, Emmitsburg, to go as a group to St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, for the Requiem Mass to be said by Rev. Fr. James Twomey at 10 o'clock. Interment in the church cemetery. Friends may call this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home in Emmitsburg with the Rosary to be recited there at 8:15 o'clock this evening.

Three Treated At Warner Hospital
Dorothea Roggenkamp, 65, Titusville, Pa., was treated at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of her left forearm sustained in a fall while touring the battlefield Sunday.

Nancy Lee Toomey, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Toomey, R. 3, received treatment for a laceration of her right forearm suffered in a fall on a tin can Sunday.

Mrs. Victor Stoner, 48, York Springs R. 2, was treated Saturday for contusions of the right forearm received when bitten by a dog.

Jack Cole To Study Radar, Electronics

Jack Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cole, Buchanan Valley, who is presently employed at Lettken Army Ordnance Depot, has been selected from applicants for advanced training in radar and electronics. He left Sunday for Port Monmouth, N. J., where he will receive 11 weeks' training, after which he will go to Red Stone Arsenal, Alabama, for six months of further training. Cole is a 1955 graduate of Gettysburg High School.

More Than 150 At Campfire Program

More than 150 attended the "campfire" program held by the Gettysburg National Park Sunday evening at 9 o'clock on E. Cemetery Hill. A film "Southern Highlanders" showing the life of peoples residing in the "Great Smokies" was shown. Dr. Frederick Tilberg, park historian in charge of the Sunday evening programs, said next Sunday evening at 9 o'clock a film "Okefenokee Interlude" depicting life in the great swamp of Georgia, will be shown on E. Cemetery Hill. In event of inclement weather the film will be shown in the Cyclorama.

President Returns To The White House

President and Mrs. Eisenhower returned to The White House about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, after spending a quiet weekend at the farm here.

The Eisenhowers arrived here Friday afternoon and the President got in 18 holes of golf at the Gettysburg Country Club before dinner Friday evening. He was also out at 8 o'clock Saturday morning with four friends and his son, Major John Eisenhower, for another round of 18 holes.

President Eisenhower attended services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

COUPLE IS WED HERE SUNDAY IN LOCAL CHURCH

The marriage of Miss Sandra Kay Redding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Redding Jr., 205 N. Stratton St., to Barry Martin Breighner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parr Breighner, Littlestown R. 2, took place at St. James Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser. The altar was decorated with palms, candelabra, and white gladioli, pompons, and asters.

Baby's Skull Is Fractured 3 Others Hurt When Car Is Upset Trying To Elude Cops

A three-month-old child suffered a fractured skull and three other persons were injured Saturday night at 9 o'clock when a car rolled over 2½ miles north of Gettysburg while it was being pursued by state police.

Police said Ray M. Speelman Jr., three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Speelman, Orrtanna R. 1, was admitted to the Warner Hospital with a fractured skull following the accident. His father suffered a laceration of the nose. His mother, Frances E. Speelman, had a laceration of the right shoulder and a stepister, Faith J. Hedwell, 4, had a laceration of the lower lip. Another passenger in the car, Robert Hedwell, 6, a stepbrother of the infant, escaped injury.

Turned Off Lights
The state policemen who had chased Ray M. Speelman Sr. for 2½ miles before the Speelman car overturned, brought the injured to the Warner Hospital.

Police said they were parked in Bendersville when they saw Speelman driving north in that community. The officers said they began driving north behind Speelman and claim that when he reached the end of the borough limits, Speelman "took off." The officers began a chase on the Mt. Tabor Rd., following Speelman as he turned into township Rd. 390 and then into another township Rd., No. 397. Speelman, the police claimed, turned the lights of his car off to avoid identification and traveled at speeds of up to 80 miles an hour in an effort to outrun the officers. The car was traveling at top speed when it struck gravel on the dirt road, skidded, hit an embankment on the north side of the road and rolled over twice.

Police said Speelman's 1951 Chevrolet sedan was demolished. They set the loss at $350.

The officers said they are bringing charges of driving without an operator's license, reckless driving and turning off lights to avoid identification against Speelman.

LIGHT INDICTED FOR MURDER OF WIFE ON JULY 7

Francis Norman Light, 50, a Hanover truck driver, was indicted this morning for the murder of his wife by an Adams County grand jury.

Light had previously confessed to police that on Monday, July 7, he and his wife were arguing while driving along a road near Barlow when a knife he was wielding plunged into the leg of Mrs. Light, severing an artery and causing her death. After the death he stuffed her body into the trunk of the borrowed car in which they were riding, returned to Hanover and the next day was founded by police under a bush near the spot where the car was found. He has been a prisoner at the county jail since that time.

The murder indictment was one of six "true bills" handed up by grand jury foreman Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe. Others indicted were Jimmie Lee Morgan, Orrtanna R. 1, and James Russell Beck, Fayetteville R. 2, each charged with committing aggravated assault and battery on the other. Morgan is alleged to have cut Beck with a knife. Beck is accused of hitting Morgan with a club. The charges stem from an altercation June 1.

Forgery Indictments
Two indictments were returned against Clifford Stephen McFarren, Gettysburg R. 2: one on forgery of a bank instrument and the other on forgery.

Approximately 15 other cases are before the grand jury this afternoon.

Two members of the jury were excused, Alice L. Bollinger, E. Middle St., for illness, and John M. Linn, Fairfield R. 2, who is out of the jurisdiction of the court.

Bail for Frederick Etzler, Olmsted Air Force Base, Middletown, was formally set at $500. He had been arrested over the weekend on a morals charge, and was released Sunday night on posting bail before Justice of the Peace John H. Base-hore.

MEMORIAL EUB PLANS $38,865 EDUCATION UNIT

Plans were approved Sunday at the annual congregational meeting of the Memorial EUB Church, W. High St., for the renovation and remodeling of the parsonage and church and the construction of an educational unit in the rear of the church.

Plans for the educational unit include a church office and study, class rooms, fellowship hall, kitchen, modern rest rooms and a new heating plant for the entire church. Insulation of the present sanctuary and remodeling of the present church entrance are also planned. J. Richard Kohler, Chambersburg, is the architect for the project which will cost about $38,865. The total cost of both projects is estimated at $50,000. Work on the projects is scheduled for the very near future.

In a 36 month Building Fund campaign begun in April 1957, $22,000 was raised, half in pledges and half in cash.

Officers Named
Election of the following church and Sunday School officers was also announced following the meeting presided over by the pastor, Rev. Harry L. Fehl Jr.:

Church Trustee, for a three year term, Donald Gorman; class leader, Fred Sanders; Sunday School Superintendent, Fred Sanders; assistant Sunday School Superintendent, Donald Gorman; Sunday School secretary, Mrs. Donald Gorman; assistant secretary, Miss Mildred Treher; Sunday School treasurer, Allan Sionaker; Cradle Roll Superintendent, Mrs. Harry Fehl; Sunday School librarians, David Gorman and Tommy Keckler; assistant librarians, Linda Smith and Cherie Smith; Home Department Superintendent, Clude Shultz; Temperance Superintendent, Weldon Shank Jr.; Sunday School pianist, Mrs. Joseph Temple; assistant pianist, Mrs. Autry Nunamaker; Sunday School chorister, Mrs. Charles Woodward; assistant chorister, Mrs. Autry Nunamaker.

The following Sunday School teachers were appointed by the (Continued On Page 3)

First Moon Rocket Blown To Bits 77 Minutes After It Was Launched On Sunday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The nation's first moon rocket shattered into bits 77 seconds after launching Sunday.

Even before this initial strike at the moon a second attempt had been ordered. The follow-up Air Force lunar probe attempt is expected during a three-day period starting Sept. 14. There was a distinct possibility that the Soviets might attempt to beat the new U.S. deadline by one day.

Plans for another moon rocket try were disclosed as the Air Force began fishing the explosion-torn debris of its first lunar vehicle out of the Atlantic.

Divers descended into 60 feet of water some 10 miles northeast of the cape and came up with sections of the metal skin of the Thor 1,500-mile-range missile that was the first stage of the moon rocket.

Loss Other Sections
The two upper stages—both borrowed from the Navy Vanguard program — continued onward an undetermined distance after the explosion. It was not expected that that part of the wreckage would be recovered.

Preliminary analysis indicated that the explosion occurred in the engine compartment of the first of the three rocket stages.

Maj. Gen. Bernard Schriever, chief of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, told a news conference that while it might take a week to pinpoint the trouble definitely, a quick look at the data indicated a random failure.

Leak Or Rupture
A leak in or rupture of one of the liquid oxygen or fuel lines might have touched off the explosion, he said.

Schriever and Roy W. Johnson, head of the Defense Department's space program, told newsmen two hours after the blowup that they were disappointed but not discouraged by the failure.

Johnson, director of the Advanced Research Projects Agency, said the malfunctioning of any of 300,000 parts could make the missile do what this one did.

Asked if the failure would harm U.S. prestige as did the Dec. 8 launch-pad explosion of the Vanguard test vehicle, Johnson replied: (Continued On Page 3)

Cyclist Is Hurt In Sunday Accident

Ivan F. Walker, York, suffered brush burns of the left arm in an accident Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the intersection of Chambersburg St. and Lincoln Square, police said.

Walker was driving a motorcycle and struck the left rear of a car operated by Henry J. Halkus, Diller Rd., Hanover, according to an accident report.

CASHMAN CLAN MEET SUNDAY IN BONNEAUVILLE

The twenty-eighth annual Cashman reunion was held Sunday afternoon at St. Luke's Church near Bonneauville. President Ray Epley, of New Oxford, presided at the devotional period attended by sixty-five descendants. Howard Carr, of Westminster, read scripture and offered prayer. The genealogical report was presented by Arthur Weaver, Gettysburg, which showed 12 births, 9 marriages and 19 deaths.

The following officers were elected: President Mr. Epley; first vice president Dr. W. A. R. Bell, of Frederick, who succeeds the late Charles F. Cashman, of Taneytown, who held this post continuously since 1926; second vice president William R. Cashman, New Cumberland; secretary Miss Vergie Musser, Gettysburg; treasurer Lawrence Fidler, Gettysburg; genealogist Arthur Weaver, Gettysburg; pianist Mrs. Russell Bell, Frederick, and historian Rev. Charles Shull, Frederick.

Prizes Are Awarded

Prizes were awarded as follows: oldest woman present, Mrs. Samuel Cashman, Abbotstown, 90 years; traveled farthest distance, Leland L. Sisson, Barberton, Ohio, 365 miles; youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harlaub, Dover, Pa., married in 1957; the youngest persons present were both born at 5:30 a.m. on February 2, 1896, and duplicate prizes were awarded to Valery Lorey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leonard, Akron, Ohio, and Maria Sue Blouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Blouch, of Harrisburg. Out of town guests were introduced and responded briefly. In addition to Messrs. Sisson and Lorey, Richard Shull, of Carlisle, N. J., and William W. Cashman, of Lancaster, spoke. The 1958 reunion will be held at St. Luke's the third Sunday in August.

Two Are Injured In Sunday Collision

Two persons were injured when two cars collided Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock a half mile west of New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway.

State police said Linus P. Noel, 46, Hanover, was driving west and stopped on the Lincoln Highway to wait the passage of east bound cars before making a left turn into the Bonneauville Rd.

Just as Noel started his turn Curtis Stoner, 53, Gettysburg R. 2, also traveling west on the Lincoln highway, attempted to pass Noel and crashed into his car causing $200 damage to Stoner's 1952 Chrysler and $100 damage to Noel's 1954 Chevrolet sedan.

Injured were Margaret Noel, 17, Hanover, who had a contusion of the chest and a possible liver injury and Marie S. Stoner, Gettysburg R. 2, who had a possible sprain of the ankle. Miss Noel was treated at the Hanover Hospital.

SCA BUILDING IS BROKEN INTO

Gettysburg College officials reported to Borough police today that the Student Christian Association Building on North Washington St. had been broken into sometime over the weekend.

According to a report submitted to Dr. Seymour Dunn, dean of the college, the intruders gained entrance to the building by breaking a pane of glass in one of the large front doors. A thorough check of the premises failed to reveal anything missing. Several files and desks had been opened but so far as could be determined nothing was taken.

The disturbance was first noticed this morning when the custodian of the school funds, Jay Brown, came to work and found that the building had been opened. Borough police are continuing their investigation.

NUPTIALS READ IN FAIRFIELD ON SATURDAY

Donald F. Shriner, son of Mrs. Ethel Shriner and the late Lawrence Shriner, Fairfield, and Miss Lois McIntire, Greenstone, were married Saturday at 10 a.m. in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Fr. John McNulty in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield.

The attendants were Mrs. Allan Shryock, a sister of the groom, and William Shriner, brother of the groom.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of lace tulle over satin and a hat with a veil. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Traditional Music
Patricia Bushey played the traditional wedding music during the ceremony. A reception followed at the bride's home.

Both the bride and groom were graduates of Fairfield High School in 1954. Mrs. Shriner then attended Harrisburg Hospital School of Nursing and is now employed at Mt. Alto. Mr. Shriner graduated from Shippensburg State Teachers College in 1953 and will serve as a math teacher at Fairfield Joint High School beginning in September.

Following the wedding, the couple left for a week's honeymoon. After their return they will be at home at Greenstone.

Weddings

McGrath-Pyle

Miss Sondra Elinora Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Burdell Pyle, Middletown, became the bride of Thomas Bernard McGrath Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. McGrath, Middletown, Saturday in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Middletown.

The Rev. Paul R. Clouser officiated.

The bride, a graduate of Middletown High School and Gettysburg College, is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority. She is teaching in the elementary grades of Middletown schools.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Middletown High School and Gettysburg College, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. An electronics engineer, he will be in the Army for three years.

Fasnacht-Jacobs

Miss Nancy Lou Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Jacobs, East Berlin R. 2, became the bride of Richard Jackson Fasnacht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fasnacht, Hanover, in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Harold Stoudt Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, East Berlin.

Mrs. Louise Rickrode, Dover R. 2, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Miles Fasnacht Jr., Hanover, was best man for his brother, Mae Wolf, organist, offered "Through the Years" (Heyman - Youmans), "At Dawning" (Cadman), "The Bells of St. Mary's" (Adams), "Because" (d'Hardelet), "O Perfect Love" (Barnby) and the traditional wedding marches.

Members of the immediate families attended a reception afterwards in the annex of Zwingle Reformed Church. After a wedding trip to Ocean City, N. J., the newlyweds will reside at 450 Madison Ave., York.

A 1954 graduate of East Berlin High School and a 1958 graduate of Millersville State Teachers College, the bride is a certified elementary school teacher. Her husband is a 1950 graduate of Hanover High School and a 1958 graduate of Millersville State Teachers College. He served two years in the Navy. Both the bride and bridegroom will teach in York city schools this fall.

"THE WAY"

Into the morning light I go . . . eager to make my way . . . wondering what will come or go . . . with the ensuing day . . . saying a silent prayer to God . . . asking for faith and strength . . . so that I will be equal to . . . trouble of any length . . . with every step I take it seems . . . I leave true love behind . . . for I'm apart from all the ones . . . who bring me peace of mind . . . this is the way with living . . . life is a grueling game . . . all those who labor far from home . . . probably feel the same . . . but there's a glow of golden hope . . . that follows where I roam . . . because I know when day is done . . . neighbor, the Western Maryland family deeds to all the families of Blue Ridge Summit this familiar community meeting place — its railroad station — to be used as a public library, thus continuing in a cultural sense, the close relationship between the railroad and the people, while preserving the attractive physical appearance of the neighborhood.

Presents Two Books

Zarfooss presented the library two copies of Harold A. Williams' "The Western Maryland Story," a history of the railroad published on the occasion of the road's centennial in 1952.

These will go along with the library's 5,000 books, a collection organized by the late Miss Mary G. Norwood in 1922, and currently housed in the parish house of the Church of Transfiguration. Since Blue Ridge Summit is unincorporated and there are no town taxes, it is necessary to obtain cash contributions to maintain the free library.

The little institution serves two states — Maryland and Pennsylvania — and four counties — Washington and Frederick in Maryland, and Adams and Franklin in Pennsylvania. The library was incorporated in Pennsylvania under a tax free charter on July 5, 1957.

Salvage Paper, Onions Destroyed By Storm

Last Wednesday's flood in the upper end of the county was particularly unfortunate for Richard Rothenhoeffer, 13, Aspers, it was learned today.

Richard, a member of Boy Scout Troop 75 of Gardners, had collected 2½ tons of newspapers and magazines from neighbors as part of a salvage drive conducted by his troop. He had the paper stored in the basement of his home along with 2½ bushels of onions which he planned to sell. The flood waters poured through the basement, destroying both paper and onions.

When the youth attempted to close the garage doors because of the rising water he became trapped inside and was forced to escape through a window and then cling to a clothes line as he made his way to his home.

The family automobile was damaged by water.

BAND TO MARCH IN ELKS' PARADE

The Gettysburg High School Senior Band has again been invited to march with the Gettysburg Elks Lodge in the annual Elks convention parade Wednesday afternoon, August 27, in Harrisburg. Musicians will leave by bus at 11:30 a.m. and return about 5 p.m., Robert G. Zeigler, band director, said today.

In previous years the band has traveled to Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg with the local lodge. At the Reading parade, the band led the marchers and the band's majorettes were awarded prizes for the best appearing majorettes in the parade.

Zeigler announced also a marching practice Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock for the senior band, color guards and majorettes. An additional drill will be held Tuesday, August 26, at the same time. An indoor rehearsal will be held following Tuesday evening's drill for their appearance at Harney VFW picnic August 23. Buses are to leave for this concert at 7:15 p.m. from the band room and return about 11:45 p.m.

On account of the parade and special senior band rehearsals, the junior band will not meet again until school begins. However, a number of ninth grade musicians from the Juniata High School will be asked to supplement the senior organization in certain sections. They will be notified prior to Wednesday's rehearsal, Zeigler added.

Love You Truly," prior to the ceremony. During the ceremony he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Bridal Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of imported swiss organza with appliques of embroidered organza roses. The tucked bodice featured a portrait neckline and short sleeves. The full skirt which fell in a back sweep was made over a flounce of the same organza and was appliqued with organza roses. She wore white kid gloves and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Sharon Phillips, York Springs, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of white pin-tucked-organza with a Peter Pan collar and wide pleated cummerbund. She wore a circlet of white flowers on her head and carried a basket of assorted summer flowers. Her brother, Tommy Phillips, was the ring bearer.

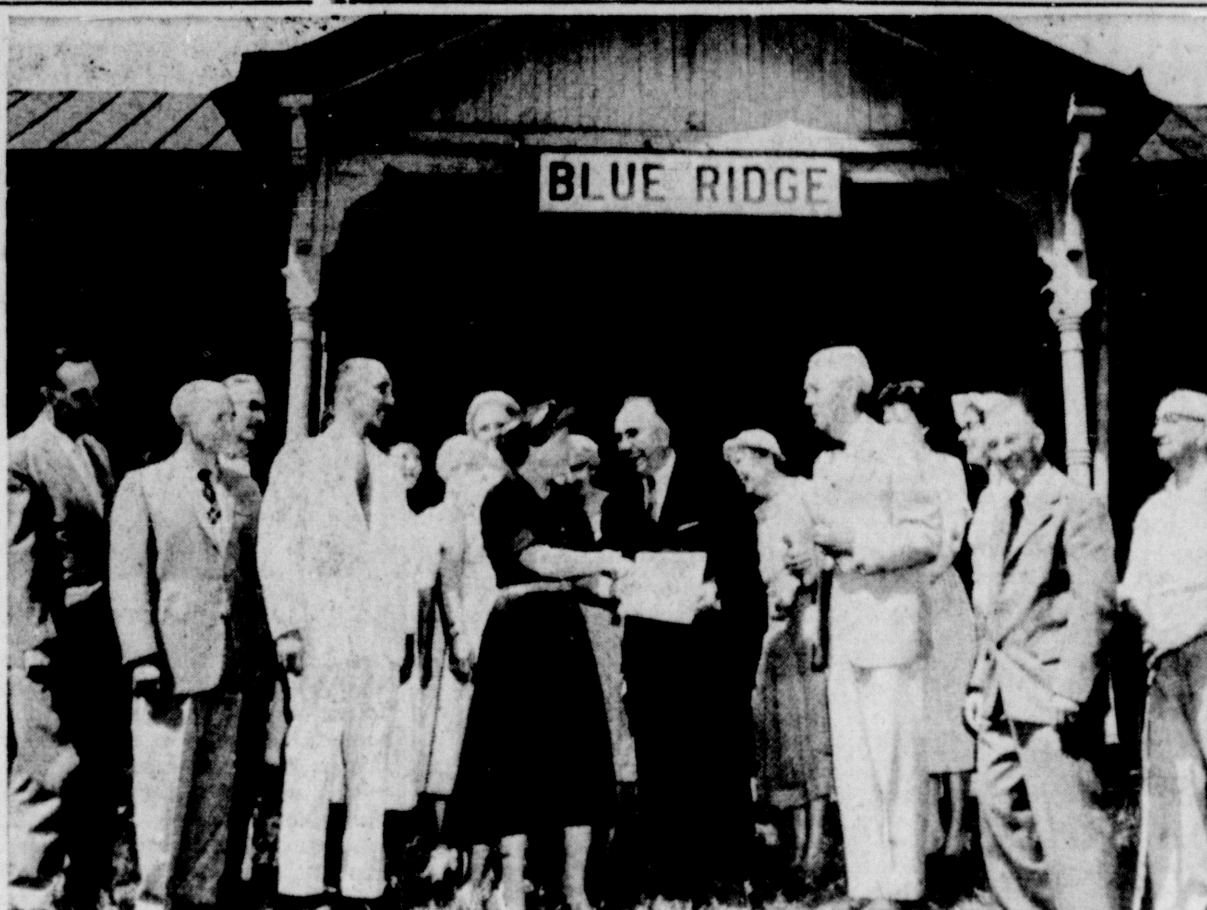

Miss Donna Redding, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her dress was a Patou of Paris creation with a close fitted pink silk taffeta bodice-front. The sides and back were shirred silk chiffon and had two flowing panels which hung to the hem of the full skirt length skirt of silk chiffon over silk taffeta. She wore a matching crownless picture hat of the same material. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses, lilies, Snow Drift, and ivy.

Six Bridesmaids

The bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Guise, Gettysburg, and Miss Elaine Keimard, Baltimore, cousins of the bride; Miss Paye Snead, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Carl Kessel, Bendersville, friends of the bride; Mrs. Gordon Breighner, West Hyattsville, sister-in-law of the groom; and Miss Evelyn Breighner, Littlestown, sister of the groom. They wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor with the exception their gowns were ice blue with matching hats. They carried cascade bouquets of pink rosebuds, lilies, Snow Drift and ivy.

Altee Breighner, Littlestown, served as best man for his brother, Barton Breighner, Littlestown, and Gordon Breighner, West Hyattsville, brothers of the groom; and Charles Sterner, Gettysburg, and Edward Reichart, Littlestown, friends of the groom were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore an —Princess Desirée, 20-year-old grand-aqua silk taffeta dress with a scoop neckline and short cap sleeves. The full skirt featured two bows in back with the skirt ending in a harem effect. She wore black accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Reception Is Held

The groom's mother wore a gun metal gray dacron dress with a scoop neckline. It featured a full gathered back and had a full skirt of pin pleats. She wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

After the wedding the reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Redding, 52 W. Confederate Ave., in the form of a lawn party. There were approximately 250 guests.

For her going away outfit Mrs. Breighner chose a two piece brown and white checkered cotton outfit. The jacket featured a portrait neckline and three quarter length sleeves. It was trimmed with a white pique collar and cuffs, and was worn over a full soft pleated skirt. She wore brown and white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The couple is honeymooning in the New England States. The bride is a graduate of Gettysburg High School with the class of 1957 and is presently employed at the agricultural extension office in the court house.

The groom is a graduate of Littlestown High School with the class of 1955 and at the present time is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, where he has one year to serve as supply clerk.

Out-of-town guests were from York, Waynesboro, Franklin, Somerset, Harrisburg, Fayetteville, Philadelphia, Frankintown, Carlisle, West Hyattsville, Md., New Cumberland, Rockville, Md., Baltimore, Md., Smithsburg, Md., Virginia, and Woodbury, N. J.

Emmitsburg Man In Auto Accident

A Tennessee truck driver was charged with failing to yield the right of way in an accident on a one-way street about 10:30 o'clock Friday morning in Frederick.

According to City Police, Ernest P. Myers of Timberville, Tenn., proceeding west on W. Ninth St., was traveling in the right lane with his truck.

Leslie M. Cregger, of Emmitsburg, driving a car, was proceeding in the left lane of W. Ninth St.

Both drivers attempted to make a left turn onto Motter Ave. Myers' truck hit the right front of Cregger's car, in attempting the turns.

Officer William A. Mutchner investigated and preferred the charge against Myers. Cregger's car received $150 damage. The truck was not damaged, the police report showed.

MARKET DECLINES

NEW YORK (AP) — Coppers and other nonferrous metals paced a stock market decline early this afternoon in fairly active trading. Key stocks fell from fractions to well over a point.

Pressure was on the base metals group because of expectations that the half-billion-dollar mineral subsidy bill will face formidable opposition when it is considered by the House Tuesday.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The Four Corners Of Carlisle and Railroad street will present, ere long, new buildings on each: The R. R. Station-house on the S.E.;
the large three-story building of Sheets & Co. on the N.E.; Mr.
Hoke's Produce-house on the N.W.
and the large hotel on the S.W.
which is being quite handsomely fitted up. This will make a change in the aspect of things in that quarter.

The Rev. Mr. Keiser of Philadelphia has been unanimously chosen pastor of the St. James Lutheran congregation of this place. The call has been accepted and Mr. Keiser has already taken charge of his new field. This congregation has been without a pastor since the resignation of Rev.
Mr. Hill.

Ancient Apple Tree: On the farm of Mr. John Mickle, in Hamilton-town township, this county, is an Apple Tree planted by one of his ancestors in 1731. It now measures 16 feet four inches in circumference and last season bore 63 bushels of good sound apples. The age of this venerable "citizen" is one hundred and twenty-seven years, and it is not yet in decline as is proven by the abundance of its last year's fruit.

Our Congressman: By the proceedings of the Congressional Conference, it will be seen that our townsman, Edward McPherson, has been placed in nomination as the people's candidate for Congress in this district. We congratulate our friends in the county and district upon the selection.
The high reputation of the nominee for talent and integrity, his unsuited character in very particular, give him a claim upon every reflecting voter.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Grand Army Encampment: The Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania will meet here Saturday, August 24, with the men to camp on E. Cemetery Hill.

The 9th reunion of the 28th and 14th regiments and Knapp's Battery, Penna. Volunteers, will be held on Tuesday the 26th at 2 p.m.
The 72nd Penna. Regiment has erected a handsome granite memorial stone on the avenue near the point of Pickett's assault on our lines. Appropriate ceremonies will be held during the week of the encampment but we have not learned the day.

The 91st Penna. regiment will unveil a massive granite stone at their position at Round Top on Monday next. There will be an address and other commemorative services of general interest.

A pipe has been laid from the Reservoir to the Camp in order to furnish a full supply of water.
The water company kindly granted use of the water, and Mr. Wilson superintended the laying of the pipes.

The tents have arrived and will immediately be placed in position.

Today's Talk

SOMETHING BETTER AHEAD

I think it a fine thing to anticipate — looking ahead to something happy and what one would like to have happen. Half dream and half accomplishment. For many years
I collected etchings and rare books — in my modest way as I could afford, but primarily I collected because I had a love for it. The chase was wonderful at times, trying to locate an etching or rare book — and then to have it knock at your front door, that book you dreamed about for years at last an actual companion!

In those collecting days I kept thinking I would be much happier if that one item would somehow become mine. I have learned, however, there are so many more things that are better, and worth waiting for. So many things in life that are worth next to nothing in money but rich in spiritual values!

I know of a student, working his way through college. He keeps expecting better things to turn up so that he may make of his days of training a genuine contribution to his life plans. It doesn't pay to get discouraged for all that energy must be saved for the later problems that turn up. I have worked at a great many things, from farm work to peddling bills, but I have always been guided by the thought that there was plenty ahead far better than anything I had ever dreamed of earning or achieving.

Look ahead. Live ahead of yourself. Be patient. I doubt if Lincoln had it in his mind that he was some day to be President of the United States. We have our dreams, but there are always better things to come about. When least expected we are singled out of the crowd to high service. There are always better things ahead!

Just Folks

THE PESSIMISTS
The pessimists have prophesied
plagues and disasters far and wide.
Since first this good old world began.

The gloomy fellows, to a man,
Have grievously foretold a crash
When everything would go to smash.

I've heard it since I was a boy:
Despair would put an end to joy,
Calamity would strike us low,
Unto the dogs the world would go.
But, nothing ever yet has come
To strike the lips of friendship dumb.

Nothing has ever put to rout
The beauty that is strewn about.
Despite the pessimistic wall
Joy, love and laughter still prevail;
This good old world just jogs along
And proves that pessimists are wrong.

Fairfield, regular season Pen-Mar League champions, won their 16th game of the campaign by crushing
Hanover 8-4 on the latter's field
Sunday afternoon. Carson started on the mound for Fairfield and was relieved in the second by G. Weikert. D. Weikert and Spence divided the catching.

In the best game of the day Taneytown edged Cashtown 1-0 on the loser's diamond.

The lone run of the game came in the top of the first inning. After Bowers grounded out, Herring was safe on his grounder to third base when the throw pulled the first baseman off the base. McNair singled, Herring going to second.
Fogle forced McNair at second as Herring reached third base. On the next pitch a pickoff play was well executed but when the umpire ruled the runner safe an argument ensued and during the debate, no time having been called, Herring raced home.

Emmitsburg rallied in the late innings to take a 7-2 decision from invading Union Bridge despite being out 13-8. D. Joy homered for the winners. Repp doubled out four hits for Union Bridge.

Musical Opens At Totem Pole Tonight

JANA PEARCE

A Cole Porter musical entitled
"Paris" opens a week's run at the Totem Pole Playhouse tonight.
Boasting a score of Cole Porter musical numbers the book has been written by Martin Brown, and enjoyed a long Broadway run starring the famous musical comedy star, Irene Bordoni. Headlining the cast will be a newcomer to the Totem Pole stage, Jana Pearce. Miss Pearce has an extensive Broadway and TV background which includes six guest appearances on the Ed Sullivan Show, The Voice of Firestone, The Hit Parade, and many others. Her film work includes such motion pictures as "Patterns," "East of Broadway," "The Kiss," and others.

She started her career as a dancer,
getting experience at the Latin Quarter and the Roxy Theater in New York. A chance appearance in "On the Town" led Miss Pearce to pursue the legitimate theater. In "Paris" she will portray the role of Vivienne Rolland, a French music hall actress who becomes enamored of a Bostonian architecture student, played by Doug Robinson.

Once all theaterland knew her as Rosie Boate, a beauty from Tipperary who captured the heart of a handsome marquis.

Her voice and her figure won her fame overnight in the storied world of hansom cabs and stage door Johnnies who drank champagne from her sliden slipper.

Rosie's big success came with a hit song, "Maisy Was a Dear,"
in a show called "The Messenger Boy" at London's famed old Gaiety Theater.

A year later, at the height of her fame in 1901, she retired from the stage to marry a young Life Guards officer, the fourth marquess of Headford. His family was shocked, but Rosie's charm finally won them over.

After their marriage, the couple settled on his family estate in County Cavan and County
Meath.

They had two sons and a daughter. Lord Headford died in 1943.

WET WEATHER IS SLOWING STATE CROP HARVESTS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's weather-plagued farmers are singing a new refrain this year. After five years of crop-killing dry spells the 1958 growing season may be too wet.

But given a choice — and the weather can never be right for all farmers and all crops — they prefer wet over dry. That's the consensus of an Associated Press statewide crop and weather survey.

The rainfall generally has promoted excellent crop growth. But at the same time damp, humid conditions have slowed the harvest of crops.

Boston Red Sox Beat Yankees As Chicago Thumps Indians; Athletics And Orioles Win

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox look like they mean to make a race out of the American League pennant chase.

Whether they started their surge too late remains to be seen. Probably they did.

But they're only 11½ games behind the league-leading New York Yankees today and all signs point strictly upward for them. They have won five in a row and 18 of their last 24.

The Yankees have lost eight of their last 11, and Manager Casey Stengel is so upset with the sudden turn of events that he called a morning practice today in Yankee Stadium. No team has been so close to the Yankees since July 20th.

Sox Beat Indians
Sunday, the Sox licked the Cleveland Indians 3-2 behind Billy Pierce, who now has his record to 13-9. It was second-string catcher Earl Batley who contributed the winning blow, a home run with two out in the eighth inning.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant was on the mound for the Indians. His record against the Sox this season is now 0-6.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox downed the slumping Yankees 6-5, the Kansas City A's whipped the Detroit Tigers 4-1, and the Baltimore Orioles edged the Washington Senators 2-1.

Bob Grim Wins
The Delock was the winning Red Sox pitcher.

Bob Grim was the author of Kansas City's decision over the Tigers. Grim was touched for only four hits and it marked the first time this season he has gone nine innings.

Baltimore jumped over Cleveland into fifth place in the league standings by whipping Washington. Connie Johnson not only did a good job on the mound, doling out only three hits, but he knocked in the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth.

FAIRFIELD LIONS LEAGUE
The Cashtown Little Leaguers of the Fairfield Lions League took over the number three position in the league standings as they captured a 2-0 victory in a playoff game for third and fourth place Saturday afternoon at Cashtown. Both teams finished the regular season with identical 6-10 records.

Jayson Gulden, Cashtown hurler, was one of the main factors in the Cashtown win as he tossed a one-hitter, struck out nine men and gave up three walks. The only Orrtanna hit went to centerfielder Shuyler.

Errors accounted for the loser's two scores which came in the fourth and fifth frames. Cashtown jumped to a 2-0 lead in the initial inning and added four more in the third and their final two scores in the fifth.

Gulden and P. Duane paced the winners hitting attack with a pair of safeties each. Both of Duane's hits were clean doubles. Roth started on the mound for Orrtanna but needed help from Neely, Starnes and Ramer.

Tonight the post season playoff games will get underway with the first-place Amvets facing the third-place Cashtown outfit on the Orrtanna diamond. Tuesday evening Fairfield, regular season second-place squad, will meet fourth-position Orrtanna on the Cashtown field.

The winners of these games will go into the finals and the champion will be decided in a three-game series on a neutral diamond. The championship series will begin on Wednesday.

HARRIS MEETS PATTERSON FOR TITLE TONIGHT

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Unde-feated Roy Harris from the picturesque community of Out and Shoot, Tex., tonight takes aim at the heavyweight boxing championship of the world against the heavily favored titlist Floyd Patterson.

The 25-year-old schoolteacher, who enjoys walking barefooted, battles the New Yorker over a route of 15 rounds or less in Wrigley Field starting at 8 p.m. (PDT).

Clear weather was forecast with theater television carrying the bout to 115 cities, with no home TV nor radio.

Odds Favor Champ
Odds favoring the champion for this third title defense were quoted at about 6-1 to win and 3-1 to score a knockout but little wagering action was evident. Still Patterson could find himself against his toughest foe to date, a rugged opponent with 22 straight victories.

Harris hails from the woody Big Thicket country 40 miles from Houston. He remains a mystery man to most since all his bouts have been in his home state and he's never appeared on national television.

$100,000 For Harris
The challenger was expected to weigh in today at 192 with the speedy champion at 186. On the financial side, Harris collects a $100,000 guarantee and Patterson might get twice as much on the basis of a guarantee and percentage.

Until the weigh-in at Hollywood Legion Stadium, both remained in seclusion at hotels and both voiced confidence.

"If I didn't think I could beat him, I wouldn't want to fight him," drawled Harris, a graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers College who considers returning to the books for a master's degree.

On the other hand, career boxer Patterson, who won the title by stopping Archie Moore in five rounds on Nov. 30, 1956, declares he wants to earn a reputation as "a great champion."

Two Easy Bouts
His only two defenses have been against the easily hit Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson and Pete Rademacher whose claim to fame was victory in the 1956 Olympics. Patterson stopped Jackson in 10 rounds on July 29 last year and blasted the clumsy Rademacher out in six.

"I'm not a great champion as far as I'm concerned," said the 23-year-old Negro from Mount Vernon, N.Y., the youngest man ever to win the crown. "A great champion is one who proves himself. I haven't had that chance."

In training, Harris showed a solid left jab, a good hook, adequate right jab and a tendency to leave himself open at times. His victories include those over Bob Baker, Willie Pastrano and Willie Besmanoff.

Could Find Trouble
Patterson, known for his speedy combinations and power in both hands, could find trouble against the sturdy 6-footer whose relatives gained note by fighting bare-knuckled in their community.

Layoff May Hurt
It was nearly a year ago, on Aug. 22, that Patterson whipped Rademacher who made his professional debut in the title bout at Seattle. Some observers believe the 361-lb day-layoff hurt the champ's timing. Since turning professional after winning the 1952 Olympic middleweight championship, Patterson has won 33 times and lost once.

Nellie Fox Posting Endurance Record
CHICAGO (AP) — He's just a little bit of a guy but Tuesday night in Boston, Jacob Nelson Fox will set a major league endurance record.

The scrappy Chicago White Sox second baseman will be playing his 478th consecutive major league game, eclipsing the mark of 477 set by the immortal Eddie Collins who began with the Philadelphia A's in 1914 and ended with the White Sox in 1918.

Fox might have broken the durability record for second basemen long ago had not Mary Marton, then Sox manager, decided to rest him in Baltimore Aug. 6, 1955, in hopes of breaking a slump. At that time Fox had a string of 274 games. He now has played in 751 of the last 752 Sox games.

Before Sunday's 3-2 victory over Cleveland, a big No. 477 was chalked at second base and an announcement was made over the public address system that Fox was about to tie the record.

The talk around the National League these days is not whether the Milwaukee Braves can hold out. Rather, it's how much they will win by.

There's no longer any lingering doubt that the Braves might fold. They have an eight-game bulge today as they head on a road swing and there isn't a team in the league that appears capable of making it even close. They've won seven in a row, matching their previous season's high.

The Braves won a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday 5-1 and 4-1 behind Juan Pizarro and Lew Burdette.

Clout Grandstand
Frank Torre hit the first grandstand home run of his career in the opener. Pizarro came within two outs of his first major league shutout, only to have it spoiled by Ed Bouchee's homer.

In the nightcap, Burdette out-pitched rookie Ray Semproch to gain his 13th victory. Wes Covington helped with a home run.

The Cincinnati Reds climbed out of last place by licking the Pittsburgh Pirates twice, 4-3, and 7-5. The San Francisco Giants polished off the Chicago Cubs 8-6. Los Angeles and St. Louis split a double-header, the Cards winning the first 12-7 and the Dodgers the second, 9-3.

The Redlegs knocked the Pirates out of second place. It was their third victory in five games since Birdie Tebbetts quit as manager.

Reliever Goes Distance
Tom Acker, primarily a relief pitcher, went all the way in the first game for the Redlegs. Joe Nuxhall won his 10th in the nightcap with the aid of Don Newcombe.

It wasn't until the ninth inning of the opener that the Redlegs iced the decision on Jerry Lynch's run-scoring single. Pinch hitter George Crowe drove in the deciding run in the nightcap in the eighth with the bases loaded.

San Francisco regained second place with its home-run-spattered triumph over Chicago. Leon Wagner, Daryl Spencer and Willie Mays each hit one for the Giants. Mays' came with two on. Dale Long, Bobby Thomson and Ernie Banks all connected for the Cubs. Moe Drabowsky was the loser.

Curt Flood and Gene Freese, the first two batters to face Los Angeles starter Sandy Koufax in the opener, hit homers for the Cards. Jim Brosnan, who worked six innings in relief, was the winner.

In the nightcap, southpaw Danny McDevitt went all the way for the Dodgers, and although he allowed only six hits, Joe Pignatano tagged Sam Jones for a three-run homer in the sixth.

HERSHEY HOSTS "PLOW CHAMPS" FOR NATIONALS

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's regional plowing champs made final adjustments today in preparation for the first event of the 16th national plowing contest and conservation exposition.

The exposition starts with state plowing competition Tuesday. State champions will be selected for both level land and contour plowing.

Some 300 vocational agriculture teachers and soil conservation service workers also were busy learning how to guide visitors around the 2,500-acre area.

Tours On Tuesday

Tours of the exposition begin Tuesday. Some of the guides will ride with the visitors on tractor-drawn wagons and others will be stationed at specific work areas.

The exposition will be climaxed by the national plowing contest, Champion sod-busters from 12 states, including Pennsylvania, already have entered the national contest and more entries are expected.

Entered in the national plowing contest Thursday and Friday are plowing champions from Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Ohio, Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, New York, Michigan, South Dakota and Minnesota.

Winners To Ireland

It will be a first time the national contest has been held east of the Alleghenies. Winners of the contour and level land contests will qualify to represent the United States at the seventh world plowing matches in Northern Ireland next year.

The exposition also will present varied events such as the state police rodeo and riding exposition, tractor safety and fire-fighting

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for Tuesday, Aug. 19 through Saturday, Aug. 23. Eastern Pennsylvania, eastern New York, Midatlantic States, Western Pennsylvania, western New York and West Virginia: Temperature will average 2 to 4 degrees below normal, cool Tuesday, little warmer Wednesday and Thursday, cooler Friday. Chance of scattered showers Thursday or Friday may average about 1/4 inch.

26 LOSE LIVES OVER WEEKEND ON STATE ROADS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Death stalked Pennsylvania highways over the weekend.

In all, 26 persons were killed since Friday afternoon in a rash of traffic accidents unsurpassed in recent years in western Pennsylvania.

In eastern Pennsylvania three traffic deaths were reported, making the state weekend total 29, a new high for 1958.

The previous high of traffic deaths recorded in Pennsylvania for this year was 19 over the Memorial Day weekend.

Eighteen persons were killed on state highways last weekend, including six members of a Pittsburgh family spanning four generations.

Upper Adams Pony League

The Bendersville Orioles and the Biglerville Redlegs won their semi-final playoffs Saturday and tonight will meet at 6 o'clock at Arendtsville for the playoff championship of the Upper Adams Pony League.

Bendersville downed the invading Arendtsville White Sox Saturday evening 6-4 with both teams securing seven hits. "Skip" Yohe collected two hits for the winners while Rodney Thomas rapped three for the losers. Brough and Singley formed the winning battery. Orner was the starter and losing moundsman with Naylor taking over the hurling in the fourth frame. Dillon was the catcher.

Biglerville's Redlegs pounded out 17 hits to rout the York Springs Giants 13-6 at Biglerville. Wagner homered for Biglerville with one on in the fourth inning.

brought out heavy road traffic. Authorities said they were at a loss to account for so shocking a death toll.

Death was unmerciful, claiming 15 persons in three accidents alone, five in each.

It took the lives of young and old, of service station operator and business executive, of marine and airman, of a newlywed.

Death wiped out four members of one family.

Two autos collided head on Sunday on Route 21 near Masontown, Pa., killing five persons, including three young girls—13, 14 and 15. Two of the girls were sisters. All of the victims were from Masontown, which is about 60 miles southeast of Pittsburgh.

Family Of Four Killed

A Pittsburgh man and his wife and two of their children en route to a Canadian vacation were killed Saturday in a two-car collision on Route 8 near Butler, Pa., about 40 miles north of Pittsburgh. The driver of the other car also was killed.

Four Apollo, Pa., girls—ranging in age from 18 to 20—and a young serviceman returning from Washington, D.C., were fatally injured Friday night in a truck-auto collision near Breezewood, Pa., some 110 miles east of Pittsburgh. One of the girls was a newlywed.

Four other Pennsylvanians drowned, another fell to his death from a barn, a fifth was killed by a train, while a plane crash and an accidental shooting accounted for two more deaths.

WADE STARS IN RAM-SKIN GAME

Maybe this is the year Billy Wade becomes the kind of quarterback the Los Angeles Rams boasted they were getting when they made the ex-Vanderbilt ace their bonus pick in the 1952 National Football League draft.

The Rams did their part during the off season when they dealt the passing Dutchman, veteran quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, to the Philadelphia Eagles.

That handed Wade the No. 1 job and, after his first showing in the new pro exhibition season, maybe it was just the push he needed.

Free of Van Brocklin's shadow, Wade was quite a man in the Rams' 31-10 victory over the Washington Redskins Saturday night in one of five weekend exhibitions that kicked off the pro campaign.

There were 73,164 looking on as Wade—playing all but one minute on offense—fired two touchdown passes and scored another on a 10-yard run.

In other games Saturday, the Cleveland Browns blanked Pittsburgh 10-0 at Akron, Ohio, and the Philadelphia Eagles won a 30-28 thriller from the Baltimore Colts at Hershey, Pa.

Sunday, the New York Giants, led by ball-hawking Cliff Livingston, beat the 49ers 19-10 at San Francisco, and the Chicago Bears, celebrating the return of George Halas as head coach, whipped the Chicago Cardinals, 24-7 at Buffalo, N.Y.

SOUCHAK WINS WITH PUTTER

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Mike Souchak, one of the mightiest hitters in professional golf, used a couple of gentle taps with his putter to end a two-year title famine and post the lowest score of the tournament season.

The 31-year-old muscleman won the $25,000 St. Paul Open Sunday with a final round 65 that gave him 263 for the 72 holes at Keller Course, which proved again to be one of the softest touches in big time golf.

Souchak's score was 25 under par, three better than the previous tournament record held by Ken Venturi, Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum.

"My putting straightened out just in time," said Souchak. "That 15-footer I made on the ninth hole was the turning point. It put me ahead of Sam Snead for the first time all day."

Snead finished four strokes back at 267, tied with Julius Boros. Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa., was fourth at 269.

World Briefs

OSLO (AP)—American Atomic submarine Skate, second to pass under the pole, will arrive in Norway Saturday for a five-day visit. The Skate will call at Bergen, Oslo.

The U.S. Embassy announced that the Skate has survived for the third time in arctic waters, this time about 300 miles from the pole between the floating arctic islands Alpha and T-3, used by American scientists on the International Geophysical Year program.

VIENNA (AP) — Travelers arriving from Budapest reported today that Hungary's Communist Chief, Janos Kadar, has gone to Russia to be treated for a nervous condition. Budapest radio announced Sunday that Kadar is on a summer vacation.

LINTHAL, Switzerland (AP) — Three Swiss mountain climbers fell to their deaths Sunday from Piz Ruesin Mountain in central Switzerland.

The three experienced Alpinists were still tied together by their climbing rope as they fell off the rock face.

MOSCOW (AP)—Frol R. Kozlov, one of the fastest rising members of the Kremlin hierarchy, has been awarded the Order of Lenin on his 50th birthday.

A Communist party official since 1939, Kozlov was appointed to the party's ruling Presidium in the shakeup of June 1957. Last March he was named one of the Soviet Union's two first deputy premiers.

LONDON (AP) — Britain's senior admiral, Sir Dudley Rawson Stratford de Chair, died Sunday night. He was 93. Sir Dudley was believed to be the last British survivor of the Egyptian War of 1882.

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—Japanese opposition to nuclear weapons again today blocked the unloading of Swiss guided-missile equipment which defense officials say cannot take atomic warheads.

The Japan Longshoremen's Union, backed by the opposition Socialist party and a host of leftist groups, refused to touch the missile cargo that arrived Sunday. It called the shipment a step toward arming Japan with atomic weapons.

Japan's defense agency started negotiations four years ago with the Contraves-Oerlikon Co. of Zurich to import the missiles and get them into local production for Japanese defense.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The National Assembly approved a new government today that excluded Communist-line members of the last Cabinet.

The 11-man Cabinet replaces a coalition formed last November which included three ministers from the Neo Lao Haksat party, successor to the Red-tipped Pathet Lao movement in northern Laos bordering on Communist China and North Viet Nam.

Washington, which provides extensive economic aid to Laos, feared the coalition was the opening wedge for a Communist takeover.

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru announced today that he has agreed to meet Pakistan Prime Minister Feroz Khan Noon to discuss border disputes between their two countries. They are expected to get together about Aug. 30.

GUILDFORD, England (AP) — Sir John Hubert Marshall, 82, noted British archaeologist, died Sunday.

PILOT KILLED; PLANE HITS RIVER

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — The pilot of a New Jersey Army National Guard plane was killed and another man was injured critically Sunday when their single-engine craft plunged into the Delaware River near here.

The dead man was identified as Capt. Lloyd Davenport, about 35, Alpha, N.J.

The injured officer, Lt. Mennett Schaare, about 32, of Belvidere, N.J., was taken to Easton Hospital. He was reported in critical condition from extensive lacerations and contusions of the body and possible internal injuries.

State Police said the plane, on a training flight from Phillipsburg, N.J., apparently had stalled while making a turn and spun out of control. It veered into a clump of trees before plummeting into the river along Route 611.

Had Broken Neck

Rescuers found the pilot dead in the plane after removing Schaare. Davenport suffered a broken neck, the hospital said.

A National Guard spokesman at Phillipsburg said the two men were practicing landings and take-offs at the Phillipsburg airport during the day. The crash occurred about 25 minutes after the plane left Phillipsburg.

Swimmers along the river bank—about four miles north of here—witnessed the crash.

The two men were attached to the 250th Tank Battalion at Phillipsburg.

OPEN BUSES TO CATHOLICS

NEWTOWN, Conn. (AP)—Pupils at Roman Catholic schools in two Connecticut towns will be able to ride hereafter in public school buses.

Residents here voted 1,243 to 1,218 Saturday in favor of such a plan. A week before, adjacent Brookfield approved the bus plan, 502 to 305.

They were the first two referendums held in the state under a law, passed last year by the General Assembly, that allows individual towns to decide whether to authorize tax-paid transportation for children who attended private, nonprofit schools.

In Connecticut, children who attend Roman Catholic schools make up the largest single group to which the law applies. The state has 421,659 public school pupils, 70,810 Catholic school pupils.

State Atty. Gen. John J. Bracken plans to rule this week on whether towns such as Newtown and Brookfield may get state school transportation grants for parochial students.

Guardsmen Camp On Battlefield

Approximately 400 Virginia National Guardsmen from the 2nd Battalion, 116th Inf., 29th Division, spent Saturday night at the southern CCC camp on Confederate Ave., on the Battlefield. They were under the command of Lt. Col. Stick and were enroute to Indiantown Gap for summer training.

The men arrived in private automobiles and trucks between 4 and 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon and left early Sunday morning.

Herman Kierdorf, Former Teamster Official Gives Himself Up Sunday Night

By PHIL THOMAS
PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Herman Kierdorf, former Teamster official sought for two weeks after the mystery torch death of his nephew, gave himself up Sunday night.

The 68-year-old ex-convict, one-time business agent for a Teamsters local, surrendered to authorities at a drive-in restaurant by pre-arrangement.

"I'm happy to have it over with," he sighed.

Herman vanished Aug. 4, the day his nephew Frank Kierdorf, 54, staggered into a Pontiac hospital with horrible burns. Police believe he was burned while setting fire to a dry cleaning shop in Flint.

Denies Arson Ties
Before he died three days later, he said he was burned deliberately by two men. But police said their investigation disproved the story.

Denying emphatically any connection with the reputed arson, Herman said he surrendered because he really had no reason to hide. He also insisted that his ex-convict nephew had not burned himself.

"Why should Frank set that place on fire as an arson job?" he asked. "I just don't believe Frank would do a thing like that."

"I'm A Sick Man"
Clutching a big cigar and wearing an Ivy League cap, Herman gave himself up promptly at the agreed time of 10 p.m. His son Richard had acted as intermediary with police.

"I am a sick man," he told reporters, referring to a heart condition. He added that another reason he turned himself in was that he felt sorry that Chief Assistant Prosecutor George Taylor of Oakland County was "taking a rap."

It was Taylor, a chief investigating officer in the Frank Kierdorf fire death mystery, who let Herman have his freedom Aug. 4 after he had been questioned.

"I'm sorry I caused so much trouble," Herman said apologetically.

Herman surrendered to Taylor and Chief Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem at the drive-in. The two officers were accompanied to the meeting place by Herman's son.

Declared A Fugitive
Before being booked at the Oakland County Jail, Herman took a nitroglycerine pill for his heart. He was booked on a formal charge of possession of a pistol without license. This was the charge on which he had been declared a fugitive.

He said he never left Michigan while the search was on. He refused to say where he had been. His statements in an interview with newsmen sometimes were in conflict.

At one time he said he vanished because he was "shaken up by the death of my nephew." He did not explain why he was missing three days before Frank died.

Later, Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams issued a statement in which he said he still believed Herman was the key to the fire mystery.

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington fortune-tellers usually wait for Congress to quit, when the dull days begin, before guessing who'll be running for president in 1960. But why wait?

There's no need to guess much about Vice President Nixon for the time being, since right now he seems to have the inside track for the Republican nomination. But it's a free-for-all among Democrats and will continue so.

A dozen Democrats — with the winds up to 105 miles an hour near the center today as it howled along 500 miles east northeast of Bermuda. It was moving at 20 miles an hour.

A turn toward the north-northeast is indicated, the Weather Bureau said.

Some increase in size is expected as the hurricane loses its force. Hurricane force winds extend out 75 miles around the center, with gale force winds reaching 225 miles to the north and east and 150 miles to the southwest.

presidential conventions still two years away — already are being mentioned as maybe having a chance for their party's nomination. That's about par for the course. Right now the Democrats don't have one outstanding possibility.

Watch Lyndon Johnson

Strangely, not much mention has been given recently to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as the Democratic candidate. Perhaps that's because this leader of the Senate Democrats has repeatedly said he has no presidential ambitions.

Maybe he hasn't. But he'd be extraordinary if he didn't. It's this writer's guess he's a man to watch. Saying right now he has no presidential ambitions — and yielding later to pressure, internal or external — are different things.

Pressure in 1960 would force him into a decision because his current Senate term ends that year.

Party May Be Split

Johnson couldn't run for both the Senate and the presidency. He looks like a cinch to be re-elected if he runs for the Senate again. But if he ran for the presidency and lost, he'd be out of the Senate.

The Democratic party in 1960 may be torn apart in a split between Northerners wanting a strong civil rights plank and Southerners burning over the public school integration issue.

It's possible in such a situation Johnson might be used as a compromise candidate to pull the party together. For, while he's a Southerner, it was through his Senate leadership that Congress last year passed the first civil rights bill in this century.

It was a compromise bill, to be sure. It wasn't as much as the Northerners wanted. It was more than the Southerners wanted. Nevertheless, Johnson steered it through.

"He's A Compromise"

He's run up a remarkable record for getting things done in a Congress where the Democrats outnumber Republicans and run the show, although Republicans control the executive branch of the government.

How does he get things done? Through a combination of things: he's a compromiser, plays friendly, avoids personal attacks, keeps windbagging to a minimum, and does favors for his fellow senators who thus become his debtors.

Johnson in the Senate could have done nothing, of course, unless the Democrats who control the House went along. And they do, under the leadership of Johnson's fellow Texan, Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Rayburn is out of all possible consideration for the presidency. He's 76 now, will be 78 in 1960. Johnson, on the other hand, has youth on his side. He'll be 50 next week, only 52 in 1960.

At one time a bad heart attack might have finished any politician's ambitions for the White House. Johnson had one in 1955. That seemed to spell the finish for him for any job beyond the Senate.

But a few weeks later President Eisenhower had a similar attack and then went on to win re-election in 1956. Where Eisenhower slowed down after his attack, Johnson resumed his old pace.

And Johnson still has two more sessions of Congress — in 1959 and 1960 — to build himself up for national consideration before the 1960 presidential elections.

AFL-CIO CHIEFS TIGHTEN BAN ON TEAMSTERS

By NORMAN WALKER
UNITY HOUSE, Pa. (AP) — AFL-CIO leaders meet today to spread tighter organized labor's quarantine against the Teamsters Union.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president said in advance that all AFL-CIO unions must end their mutual aid pacts with the giant truckers union, ousted from the federation eight months ago on corruption charges.

Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, told newsmen he was confident the AFL-CIO Executive Council would vote to require member unions to sever all ties with the Teamsters.

Critical Decision
This is a crucial decision with most AFL-CIO unions whose bargaining power depends on Teamsters' help in respecting their picket lines to cut off deliveries and make their strikes effective. The Teamsters have been the target of more than 18 months of corruption charges by the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington.

The truck union, headed by James R. Hoffa, has continued to cooperate with AFL-CIO member unions even after its ouster from the main body of organized labor. Many AFL-CIO unions have unabashedly accepted or courted such aid.

Risk Losing Help
Any formal cutting of Teamster aid, as threatened here, could result in Teamsters retaliation that LITTLESTOWN — Frank E. Basehoar, principal at the Littlestown Junior-Senior High School, was the guest teacher in the adult department of Redeemer's United Church of Christ School Sunday morning. The program was in charge of the Ladies' Ever Faithful Bible Class, taught by Edward F. Hawk.

Christ Church Choir will not rehearse Tuesday evening. There will be no worship service in Christ Church next Sunday; the next worship will be on August 31 at 10:30 a.m. The Sunday School will meet next Sunday and will be taught by Chester B. Utz, Hanover, R. D.

There will be no daily mass in St. Aloysius Catholic Church this week in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. William A. Boyle. In the event of an emergency, parishioners are asked to call the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary rectory in McSherrystown. There will be no confessions Saturday afternoon.

Confessions will be heard Saturday evening beginning at 7 p.m. Students attending Delone Catholic High School, met with the pastor following the morning masses on Sunday to discuss transportation. A pastoral letter from the Most Rev. George L. Leech, Bishop of Harrisburg, giving statistics on the activities of Catholic Charities in the Harrisburg Diocese, was read at the masses Sunday, noting that more than ten thousand individuals had been benefited by this organization during the past year.

Committees for the weekly Saturday night party were announced as follows: arrangements, Stewart N. Long, James Claybaugh, Albert Carbaugh, William May, Marvin Miller, Joseph Shrader and Charles would pit union against union and dilute strike cooperation.

The issue is whether the AFL-CIO is willing to risk losing this help in dealing with employers as the price of the federation's avowed stand against union corruption.

At issue also is the status of Maurice Hutcheson, an AFL-CIO vice president and chief of the big Carpenters Union. Hutcheson is embroiled in an Indiana state highway scandal, charges of fixing a grand jury and frittering away union funds on a book lauding the Hutcheson clan.

He inherited his union's helm from his father, the late William (Big Bill) Hutcheson.

FIND 540 FIRMS WHO HAVE NEVER PAID SALES TAX

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Revenue Dept. disclosed today a stepped-up drive against sales tax evaders netted 540 firms that had never paid any sales tax.

Deputy Secretary Charles S. Seligman said the most flagrant case involved a Pittsburgh furniture firm that collected $5,600 in sales taxes from its customers but never remitted the money to the state.

"This was an outrageous instance of evading the law," he told the Associated Press. "We have collected interest and the 25 per cent penalty against the firm and criminal prosecution is pending." He said the sales tax law specifically prohibits identifying the firm until the case reaches the courts.

Recover Thousands
Seligman said the eight-month drive to bring in new sales tax accounts unearthed thousands of dollars in additional sales tax revenues but he was unable to estimate a specific amount.

Principal offenders, he said, were auto part stores and mechanics, barbers, beauty shops, vending machine operators, restaurants and taverns, sellers of barrels and cartons and service stations.

"We were able to track down these people on the basis of a variety of reasons," he said. "Lists from trade associations of their members, scanning the classified sections of telephone directories and simple digging are doing the job."

The department caught up with a Pittsburgh furniture firm by a telephone tip from an outsider, he said.

Seligman said the bureau has collected $4,300,000 in sales tax in the first six months of this year by intensive audits. This compared with nearly $3 1/2 millions yielded by the same system last year and a million dollars in 1956.

33 ARRESTED IN DOPE RAIDS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Police arrested 33 persons this weekend and charged them with various infractions of the narcotics law.

DEATHS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Virginia Hobart Tchoktouna, 84, daughter of a California bonanza king and wife of Georgian Prince Zou-rab, died Sunday. Prince Zou-rab, 18 years her junior, and now a well-known New York and Paris artist, was her second husband. They were married in 1949 and separated five years ago. Her first husband was the late Charles A. Baldwin, a San Francisco millionaire.

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda reported Sunday that Yakob M. Lomakin, 33, last identified as counselor of the Soviet Embassy in Peking, died Sunday after a long illness. It did not say where he was former Soviet consul general in New York and San Francisco.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fenton Moran, 51, credited with capturing the first German spy in Normandy during World War II, died Sunday after a long illness. Since the end of the war he had been executive secretary of the William J. Kerby Foundation, which has as its objective the suppression of communism. He was born in Hartford, Conn.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Albert B. Holtz, 41, chief of the Philippine Division of the International Cooperation Administration, died Sunday of cancer. Holtz, who was an economist on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's staff in Japan from 1946 to 1951, was born in Bloomington, Ind.

BAYSHORE, N. Y. (AP) — Wolcott Gibbs, 56, long-time drama critic and writer for the New Yorker magazine, died Saturday. A former newspaper reporter, Gibbs joined the New Yorker in 1927 and had been drama critic since 1940. He was born in New York City.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dr. Chevalier Jackson, 92, world-renowned developer of the bronchoscopes, died Saturday. He founded Temple University's bronchoscopic clinic, which bears his name. He was born in Pittsburgh.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — John Lewis Brumm, 80, retired chairman of the University of Michigan's journalism department, died Saturday of a heart ailment. He was on the Michigan faculty from 1905 until he retired in 1948.

LAUGHARNE, Wales (AP) —

seized and 44 persons arrested in the raid.

The narcotic roundup, the fifth of its kind in the last seven summers, failed to uncover any large Atlantic City narcotics activity, according to Detective Ben Anderson.

Charges against those arrested included sale and possession of narcotics, consorting with narcotics users and failure to comply with the state narcotics registration act. The act requires those convicted of narcotics violations to register with local police.

Seized Some Dope
Police said they seized several packs of heroin, some marijuana cigarettes and five sets of hypodermic needles and syringes.

A total of 56 persons were questioned, but many were released for lack of evidence. As of Sunday night, 33 had been charged and 43 were still being held.

Among those arrested was ousted Jockey Anthony La Turco, who was charged with being a narcotics user.

Also arrested was Charles Maraudola, 34, the manager of middleweight boxer Rocky Castellani. Maraudola, also known as Charles Julian, was booked on charges of being a disorderly person, being a user of narcotics and procuring for prostitution.

Nadir Easily Wins $160,075 Horse Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ARLHUR B. (Bull) Hancock had his derby today and it wasn't the one he originally aimed at with Nadir — but the master of Claiborne Farm isn't kicking.

Nadir, noted as a juvenile delinquent last year as a 2-year-old, easily won the $160,075 American Derby Saturday at Chicago's Arlington Park. This was the colt that Hancock, Paris, Ky., breeder, had hoped would win the Kentucky Derby last spring.

Nadir led all the way under Manuel Ycaza's urging. He paid $6 for $2 and was clocked in 1:51 3-5 on a heavy track, the Cain Hoy Stable's Victory Morn was second, and Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Talent Show third. Nadir's victory margin was 3 1/4 lengths.

Mrs. Florence Thomas, 60, mother of the late Welsh poet, Dylan Thomas, died Saturday. HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Paul Panzer, 86, a celebrated villain of the screen's old silent serial, "The Perils of Pauline," died Friday. He appeared in hundreds of other silent movie roles.

BAD NAUEHEIM, Germany (AP) — Mahmoud Abdul Fath, 65, once the powerful chief of an Egyptian publishing firm, died Friday. Fath, a former senator in the regime of ex-King Farouk, was owner and publisher of Al Misri, once the leading Egyptian newspaper and organ of the Wafd party.

DETROIT (AP) — Charles B. Van Dusen, 87, former president of the S. S. Kresge Co., a 5-and-10-cent store chain, died Saturday. He joined the firm of Kresge and Wilson in Detroit in 1904 and served as president of the Kresge Co., which was organized in 1912, from 1925 until 1938.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Brig. Gen. Anton F. Lorenzen (ret.), 82, business and civil leader of Chicago and Miami, died Saturday of cancer. He was founder and president of Lorenzen and Thompson, Inc., newspaper representatives, and was associated with the advertising firm of Lord and Thomas, Inc.

U. S. ATOM PLAN SPREADS OVER MOST OF WORLD

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Slowly but surely, President Eisenhower's Atoms for Peace plan is taking shape today.

The defense and international red tape have been a drag, but American corporations have set up nuclear reactors aboard, are building more and have contracted for still more. At least 20 can be tallied.

The President launched the plan nearly five years ago in his last previous appearance at the United Nations before he presented there last week the Middle East Development Plan. In this he hinted that nuclear power might help the Arabs solve one problem, that of making wash water out of salt water.

Atomic Subs
Talk of atomic powered submarines to carry oil and other cargo under the North Pole also is stirring imaginations.

But some actual projects are in place on dry land. The progress will be checked next month in Geneva at the U. N. s International Conference on Peaceful Use of Atomic Energy. An American built mobile radio-isotope laboratory is on the way there. Later it will tour Europe to give training courses to students.

American Machine & Foundry and its AMF Atomics division have stepped out fast. They report 16 nuclear research reactors either completed or underway in the United States, Canada and overseas.

Reactors Underway
Among them are reactors completed for the Ministry of Education in the Netherlands and for a laboratory at Munich, Germany. Other AMF reactors are under construction or in various drawing board stages for Canada, Austria, Greece, Portugal, Italy, Iran, Israel, Japan and Puerto Rico.

Westinghouse Electric International has licensed manufacturers in Belgium, Italy and West Germany to build and sell pressurized water reactors. A Belgian thermal reactor is expected to be operating by the end of 1959. Edisonvolta, S.P.A., large Italian utility, reports it will get one.

GE in Spain
GE's atomic division reports one of its 3,000 thermal kilowatt reactors will be in operation next month near Madrid, Spain.

Under construction are GE reactor plants in Venezuela and Formosa. A West German utility announces it has contracted for a GE reactor to go into operation near Frankfurt by the end of 1960. GE's reactors are built by its Atomic Power Equipment Department at San Jose, Calif.

Peaceful atoms are being harnessed here and in England to produce commercial power, but much of the nuclear reactor work here and abroad so far has been for research and training. The U. S. has bilateral agreements with 24 nations to set up such programs and has appropriated five million dollars toward paying half of the reactors' costs.

AMF says its reactors will be used to activate materials for engineering tests, such as food processing and sterilization, biological reaction by radiation, and determination of wear in machinery.

VIROQUA, Wis. (AP) — The State Historical Society is planning a memorial on half an acre of the farm which was the birthplace of Jeremiah M. Rusk, the first U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

Rusk served as a general in the Civil War and was Wisconsin's 15th governor, holding office from 1882 to 1889. He also was a congressman.

FIVE KILLED IN HEADON CRASH; THREE GIRLS

MASONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Five Masontown persons — including three young girls — were killed Sunday in a head-on auto collision on Route 21 a mile east of this southwestern Pennsylvania community.

It brought the total to 26 persons killed since Friday afternoon in a rash of traffic accidents on western Pennsylvania highways unsurpassed in recent years. It was the third weekend traffic crash to claim five lives in western Pennsylvania.

Killed in Sunday's crash were Dennis Vignali, 35, and Michael Zapotosky, about 35, the drivers of the two cars; Toni Margheret, 15, and her sister, Marilyn, 16, and Darlene LaDonne, 13, the Margheret girls' cousin. Police said the three girls were riding in Vignali's auto.

Both Cars Demolished
Officers said both cars were demolished. The wreckage blocked traffic on the busy highway for nearly an hour. A crowd of some 500 persons gathered quickly in the area.

Police said Vignali had been attending a picnic and hand concert in Masontown earlier in the day.

Zapotosky operated a service station on Route 21 near the scene of the accident.

Five persons were fatally injured Saturday in an auto accident near Butler. Five others were killed in another traffic crash near Breezewood Friday.

Shaving was originally a protective measure since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.

Secretary Tells Of Threats Against Man Who Disappeared

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probe Robert F. Kennedy said Friday a good deal of money figured in the presumed death of Dave Probst, Indianapolis businessman who vanished in 1955.

Kennedy, chief counsel of the Senate Rackets Committee, expressed that view in the wake of testimony that Probst was threatened and given an ultimatum shortly before he disappeared.

The committee said it planned to question again the men linked with the reported threats and ultimatum to Probst. They were identified as Gus Zapas, Indiana Teamsters official, and Allen M. Dorfman.

Secretary Reveals Threat
The threat and ultimatum story was related to the committee Thursday by Betty Starett, an Indianapolis secretary. She was a surprise witness in the committee hearings on relations between Probst and James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union.

Miss Starett also said she had heard Zapas threaten to kill Probst. But she said that was Zapas' normal way of speaking. As for the alleged ultimatum, the blonde secretary said three Chicago men met with Probst in May 1955 and ordered him to deliver some records of June "or else."

Probst disappeared June 6, 1955.

Identifies 3 Men

Miss Starett said she overheard the ultimatum in the offices of the Aidor Insurance Agency of Indianapolis where she worked. She identified the three men as Dorfman, Phil Goodman and Alvin Baron, all of Chicago.

The witness said Probst once headed the Aidor agency, which she described as closely connected with Teamster members in Indianapolis. She said Baron and Dorfman, an insurance man linked with the Teamsters in past testimony, were associated in the agency. Goodman was identified as a lawyer.

In questioning Miss Starett about the alleged ultimatum, Kennedy asked: "Was any money mentioned?"

"In the amount of $6,000," she answered.

Hoffa has testified he scarcely knew Probst, but nevertheless made a loan that helped Probst establish a new taxicab firm in Indianapolis, called the State Cab Co.

Hugh Wagner, the taxi firm's former manager, testified that Zapas and Gene San Soucie, president of Indianapolis Teamster Local 135, seized control of the firm in December 1954. Miss Starett told a similar story.

San Soucie, however, insisted he and Zapas were just trying to help Probst manage the firm at Probst's request.

Kennedy contended correspondence from the cab company's files indicated a much larger role by both men.

On another matter, Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R-Mich.) testified Rep. Wm. Smith (R-Kan.) did nothing improper in abandoning a 1953 Buick investigation of Hoffa and Detroit racketeers.

Smith never has elaborated on the statement he made at the time that pressure from "way up" caused him to drop the probe.

The committee has said it would appreciate an explanation from Smith, but would not ask for it unless he offers to give it.

Wedding

LeFevre-Giering

Mary Jane Giering, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert I. Giering, Utica, N. Y., and Ferree LeFevre, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. LeFevre, 356 E. King St., Littleton, were married on August 2, at 8 p.m., in the Moravian Church, Emmaus. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Giering, father of the bride. Mr. Howard Deischer presented an organ recital prior to the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. John E. Giering, as matron of honor, and Miss Millred Winter, Baltimore, as bridesmaid. The bridegroom had as his best man, Charles Shirk, Lancaster, and serving as ushers were John Decker, Reading and Floyd Williams, Honesdaqua, classmates of the bridegroom in college. A reception was held following the ceremony in the Moravian Church social hall, Emmaus.

The bride attended the Juilliard School of Music, New York, is a member of the Bethlehem-Bach choir and former soprano soloist at First United Church of Christ, Easton. Her husband has received a B.S. degree from State Teachers College, West Chester; is a member of the American Guild of Organists; former teacher of music in Chambersburg Junior High School and organist of Central Presbyterian Church.

"SODA" ROCKS POP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—That bottle of soda pop his son brought home would not taste like a soda pop. And, besides, it gave Edward Bourne a "breathless feeling," he told sheriff's deputies.

A chemical analysis showed the liquid in the bottle was 95 per cent ethyl alcohol.

Bourne recovered.

Rory Calhoun, Atlanta middleweight boxer, formerly worked as a pin boy, construction worker, dishwasher and janitor.
